Sustainability Report*

Executive Summary

May 2026

A word from our CEO

*Growth in a culture of creativity and responsibility

2025 was a defining year in our story, as we continued to expand our industrial footprint, opened new Creative Centers and further strengthened our local presence in the regions. Growth, however, is not only a matter of scale, it is also, and, above all, a question of how we choose to grow.

Environmental and social responsibility are not parallel priorities to our business ambitions; they are the foundations that make long-term success possible. We have always been, and will continue to be, committed to reducing our environmental impact and finding ways to support the communities in which we are present.

When we decided to install solar panels on the roof of our flagship plant in Rubí, we took a deliberate step towards more responsible operations. Over time, the results spoke for themselves: a meaningful reduction in our carbon footprint and... our electric bill. It is a win-win outcome and a clear example of the kind of actions we want to do more of.

The same mindset guides our Scientists and Perfumers as they develop advanced fragrance technologies, such as encapsulation, and innovative proprietary ingredients like Olivante® and Euphorion®, always with an environmental and social perspective in mind.

The men and women of Eurofragrance will remain at the heart of our ambitions. Future growth will require empowered teams, diverse talent and a culture where creativity and responsibility walk hand in hand. I feel that it is only by fostering a safe, inclusive and engaging work environment that we will be able to deliver the fragrance innovations and creativity that our partners have come to expect from us. Equally important is the way we govern our organization. Transparency and ethical decision-making to mitigate risks will remain paramount as they build trust among stakeholders, up and downstream.

We have known for years that integrating sustainability into our strategic decision making is essential to ensuring our growth. Our 2025 business results and achievements are proof of this, and we plan to continue down this path with purpose and integrity in the years to come.

Growing our business, strengthening our teams

Sales increased by 16% in 2025

Eurofragrance closed 2025 with sales totaling more than 200 million euros. All regions participated in these excellent results: APAC, EAT, IMEA and LATAM, with a special mention for the Middle East, Latin America, Africa, Türkiye and Indonesia. Every product category: Fine Fragrance, Home and Personal Care, and Air Care experienced growth.

Volumes of produced fragrance and our workforce has naturally followed this trend.

People at the core of our commitment

From employee well-being to social engagement beyond our sites

In 2025, Eurofragrance's commitment to people and inclusive talent management was externally recognized, as we achieved Best Company for All Talent.

Once again, Eurofragrance employees exhibited solidarity from East to West, participating massively in our global Community Day. A team also traveled to Valencia to help those still affected by the flooding disaster.

All Eurofragrancers count with a medical insurance, and additionally, in Dubai we conducted a Breast Cancer Awareness camp that included a full medical check-up on site for all employees.

Amongst other projects, we also conducted a gap analysis in order to apply for a RSPO certification in 2026.

Sustained action, proven environmental impact

Smarter use of energy and water delivering long-term progress

Every year, we try new initiatives and set new projects in motion. But some of our programs have been in place for over five years, and now we can really appreciate the results of our investments. For instance, by reducing and offsetting our Scope 1 and 2 emissions, since 2023 we achieved carbon neutrality for our manufacturing plants.

Our continued efforts to optimize processes while reducing our environmental impact have enabled us to lower both the energy required and the water consumed in the production of our fragrances. At the same time, we continue to apply the 3R philosophy (Reduce, Reuse, Recycle) to waste management, actively seeking recycling opportunities across the different regions in which we operate.
